Members of the Rock Island hive will act as hostesses and elaborate preparations are being made for the affair, a social time, re-salted boiling water and boil 20 minutes. Remove all outside membrane, coat with egg and cracker crumbs and fry gently in lard till of a golden brown. Allow one tablespoon of lemon juice to one pint of water.

Creamed Tuna Fish—Heat fish by boiling 10 minutes in the can. Make a white sauce with milk, butter and flour, as usual. Add fish after it has been separated with a fork; add one chopped pimiento, half bunch celery (cook this a little first), one small can button mushrooms. Serve on toast.

Potato Dumplings—When roasting or stewing meat of any kind, try this, it's just fine: Boil 10 good sized potatoes with their skins on. When done, peel and mash; add cup flour and mix all together. Have some small squares of bread fried brown in good drippings. Take half the bread and mix with potatoes, egg and flour, make into small balls and drop in salted, boiling water. Boil 15 minutes, then dish up and pour the heat of the bread over the dumplings. To be eaten with the gravy.

Delicious Raisin Bread—One big cup brown sugar, one cup sour milk (dissolve one teaspoon soda in part of milk), add pinch of salt, two cups Graham flour, big cup of chopped raisins. Put in small deep cake pan and bake 50 minutes in very slow oven.

Mock Mince Pie—One cup molasses, one cup sugar, three-fourths cup vinegar, one-half cup butter, one cup powdered crackers, one-half cup raisins, one-half cup water, one teaspoon each of cinnamon and cloves. This makes two large pies.

Marshmallow Pudding—Four egg whites, one tablespoon gelatin, one cup granulated sugar, one teaspoon vanilla. Beat whites of eggs to stiff froth. Soften gelatin in a very little cold water (to cover), add one-half cup boiling water. Add this to beaten whites, stirring constantly, and then sugar, a little at a time. Flavor. Divide this into three parts. Color one part a very delicate pink, another a pale green, and have the other white. Place a piece of oiled paper in bottom of mold or baking pan, arrange a few sliced maraschino cherries on this, carefully turn in the white mixture, sprinkle over this chopped pecan nuts and sliced cherries, and last the green mixture. Set in cold place to get very cold. Turn out on a dish, garnish with marshmallows, cherries and whipped cream. This pudding may be made in individual molds; small cups will answer very well for these molds.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am an unhappy school girl of 16. As you do not know me I thought you would be able to advise me intelligently. I have no friends. At school every one speaks to me and chats with me, but no one cares to take me into her confidence. I am not included in the affairs or treated as one of the crowd. Although I am unhappy I do not show it. I go along as gaily as possible. I don't care for boy friends, but just long to go with other girls, to attend their doings, etc. Some of the popular girls are going to graduate this year and there will be a chance for somebody else. How can I go to it to win this place? I do not dance, but I am an experienced pianist, play tennis, cards, etc. I would like to learn to dance, also. I am considered very good-looking and what clothes I have are nice, but I don't have many. I belong to the girls' club and go to church and Sunday school. I am very humorous and keep the girls laughing for half an hour at a time. It seems to me that I ought to win friends. I don't go out much, because I have no one to go with and have to study a great deal. In the summer I get very lonesome. This summer I did not go anywhere for a vacation and feel the need of one. Please suggest some things that may be the matter with me and a good course I can follow. One thing I never do is to pry into places where I am not wanted.

INDEPENDENT.
It is very difficult to answer your question without knowing you, and so my answer may be entirely off the track. But, judging from your letter, I should say that you are too self-conscious, and take yourself and life more seriously than you need to. Probably you carry your independence too far and a little more interest in your schoolmates' affairs would make you better liked. The girl who has initiative and imagination is always popular, because she doesn't stop to think whether she is meeting people more than half way, she jumps right into what she is doing with a whole-hearted interest and forgets herself in order to carry her idea into effect. Play with your schoolmates. When something is suggested go ahead and do it.

without thinking about unprepared lessons and piano practice. I don't urge you to stop studying by any means, but I do not think you ought to study so much that you have to give up the social side of your schooling. Why not give a card party or form a little card club? Such a course ought to bring you in closer touch with the girls. It would be a very good thing to go to dancing school, I should think. There are so many dancing parties nowadays that a girl finds herself pretty much left out of things if she cannot dance.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I have been going with a young man six years my senior and he brings me candy and books and sends me flowers. Do you think he really loves me?

(2) He talks about other girls an awful lot. Do you think he does this to make me jealous?
(3) If you tease a boy by going places with other boys and he still shows the same spirit towards you, does he really love you?
(4) Is 18 years too young to be engaged?
ROSEY CHEEKS.
(1) He is very much interested or he would not show you so much attention.
(2) I have no idea what his motive is.
(3) Not necessarily. It is more likely to be an indication that the boy doesn't care enough to be annoyed.
(4) I think so.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Please tell me a good way to entertain about three or four couples on Sunday evening without playing cards. And please suggest something inexpensive to serve.
BOBBIE.
Have a taffy pull or make some other kind of candy. The candy serves as refreshments, and making it gives you something to do.

Why Millions Stopped Bottled Milk

The vast army of women who have quit the old fashioned way of buying milk in bottles is composed of the most careful, up-to-date and discriminating housewives in the country. They have found that Libby's Milk is so infinitely superior in every way that there is simply no comparison. It is pure, healthful, economical and convenient. They know that it is pure, rich milk from sanitary dairies, made over twice as rich by evaporation and sterilized. They know that it is perfectly adapted for every purpose for which they previously used ordinary bottled milk or cream and many times as convenient.

Try Libby's for just one week yourself—you'll never go back to bottled milk again.
